

ALL FOR ONE. ONE FOR ALL. THE DEUTSCHLAND-TICKET.

The Deutschland-Ticket, or D-Ticket for short, allows everyone to use all forms of local transport across the whole of Germany for an incredible 58 euros a month. The D-Ticket gives you unlimited access to bus and rail and represents a giant leap to-wards the mobility of the future: simple, flexible and climate-friendly.

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW

BUYING YOUR DEUTSCHLAND-TICKET

The Deutschland-Ticket is a personal, digital season ticket subscription that is valid on a monthly basis and can be cancelled on a monthly basis. It costs 58 euros per month. You can buy the D-Ticket via any of Germany's regional transport companies' apps and normal ticket sales channels. In many regions, you can also sign up for the Deutschland-Ticket in a customer service centre. The D-Ticket is available both as a "Deutschland-Ticket mobile" on your smartphone and as a chip card.

Many regional transport companies have set up English-language websites to make it easier for non-German speakers to buy their tickets. This is the case, for example, with the following providers:

- Dresdner Verkehrsbetriebe \(DVB\)
- Kölner Verkehrs-Betriebe \(KVB\)
- Münchner Verkehrsgesellschaft \(MVG\)
- Rhein-Main Verkehrsverbund \(RMV\)
- Verkehrsverbund Bremen/Niedersachsen \(VBN\)
- Verkehrsverbund Warnow \(VVW\)

VALIDITY AND CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

The Deutschland-Ticket is valid on all means of regional and local public transport across the whole of Germany. Ticketholders have unlimited use of all forms of local public transport, from buses and trams to city trains, underground trains, suburban trains, regional trains, regional express trains in 2nd class, and many ferry lines.

The D-Ticket is not valid on long-distance services (e.g. Deutsche Bahn's IC, EC, ICE, and RE lines provided by DB Fernverkehr AG) or on privately operated services (e.g. FlixTrain, FlixBus).

If the respective transport company's tariff zone extends outside Germany, ticketholders may also travel in those foreign areas.

CAN I TAKE OTHER PEOPLE WITH ME?

Children under the age of 6 travel free of charge on public transport and do not require a Deutschland-Ticket. You cannot take dogs, bicycles and children over the age of 6 with you free of charge on the D-Ticket.

Carriage regulations are based on the tariff regulations and conditions of carriage of the respective transport region and may vary depending on the route. Local upgrades may be available, but are limited to the respective transport region.

CANCELLATION

You can cancel your Deutschland-Ticket subscription by the 10th of any month to the end of that month. If you want to cancel your D-Ticket, you'll need to write to the transport company you have your subscription with.
